In: Characters, Women, Main Characters, 3rd Year Share Review Gallery Synopsis Relationships Reiji Furuhashi (Father)† Of Sidzuru Furuhasi (Mother) Ichinose AcademyFuruhashi Residence Fumino Furuhashi (古橋文乃, Furuhashi Fumino?) is one of the main characters of the series We Never Learn. Third-year student and genius in art and literature. Despite her mediocre math skills, Fumino wants a degree in astronomy to find a certain star, which she believes is the reincarnation of her late mother. Her father is a professor of mathematics at the university. Fumino has had a strained relationship with her father since her mother died ten years ago. However, with the support of Nariyuki Yuga, they will finally be able to reconcile. She often acts as a confidant of Nariyuki whenever he encounters the girl's problems. The look of Fumino is a tall and slender girl with a silky blue waist-length hair (dark blue in comic, bright blue in the anime) who bangs swept to the right with a white bandage inside it. She also has brown eyes and her beauty is undeniable as she is named as one of the most beautiful girls in the Ichinose Academy. Her hairstyles change in some cases, sometimes tied as a tail (one or a twin) or a chignon. She wears a blue sweater at school. Fumino's personality is a silent girl who rarely talks to classmates, except for very few close friends. Nariyuki Yuiga was the only male friend when she recognized him as a teacher. Sometimes she falls asleep in the classrooms that Nariyuki is seen in question 1, and then warns Mafu Kiris in question 56. Because of the pain caused by Reiji Furuhashi (Fumino's father) as a child, she developed a fear of aggressive men. This is seen in the early chapters, and the only exception is Nariyuki. She is heavily influenced by Shizuru Furuhashi (Fumino's mother) and she is determined to achieve astronomy at university. She gets excited when Nariyuki talks about the zodiacs. She is emotional and very sensitive to feelings and does not want to hurt Riza Ogate and Uruka Takemoto, despite having positive feelings for Nariyuki. Sometimes she acts as Nariyuki's love adviser. She does not want to participate in the cool drama, as she is always assigned to portray the heroine, say Sleeping Beauty in question 64. The story of Fumino is one of the main heroines of the female sex, which is a genius in the field of literature and art, but panics about the slightest mathematical questions. The only daughter of college mathematics professors, Fumino seeks to emulate Shizuru Furuhashi (Fumino's late mother). Since her mother died many years ago, Reiji Furuhashi (Fumino's father) has shown gross negligence towards her. The only way Fumino can think about communicating with him is to leave notes on the table and hopes that he finds them, Nariyuki Yuiga draws attention to the fact that he cares more about his program than with the help of his daughter. Her father also dissuades her, saying she doesn't have success in the scientific field. Because she is very emotional and in an incident that destroyed her relationship, her father once punched her in the face, comparing himself to his brilliant mother. The etymology name Fumino means suggestion (文) (fumi) and from (乃) (no). The surname Fumino Furuhasi means old (古) (furu) and bridge (橋) (hashi). The quotes Trivia Fumino has a sign of beauty under the left eye, which also symbolizes luck in a love life. Fumino is left-handed. Fumino realizes his breasts. Fumino loves sweet foods that sometimes spend a lot on desserts and sweets. Fumino also likes spicy food. If Fumino sleeps during class or in bed, she always has a nanny while she sleeps. Fumino is known as the Sleeping Beauty of the Literary Forest. Fumino calls Nariyuki Yuiga Yuiga-kun in the early chapters and her then Nariyuki-kun in the last chapters. Fumino sometimes uses too much language when she's nervous. Fumino manages to read the story of Rashomon word for word while sleeping, scaring Savako Sekijou in the process. Fumino remembers almost all the zodiacs. Fumino is very poorly prepared, and poor in housework. The Fumino family is quite rich compared to the other main characters. Fumino is admired by her classmates, members of the secret fan club Club Thorns. The leader is Kashima, and Inomori and Chono are the main members. The twin tail is one of the most common hairstyles, but it is omitted and replaced with straight hair in the anime series and the tail is stored in the anime series. Fumino is aware of his weight. Fumino's birthday is not revealed in the manga, only the mention of her birthday in October, and her zodiac sign Libra. Taishi Tsutsui announced her birthday on Twitter. The series follows the story of Nariyuki Yuiga, a high school student tasked with tutoring three female geniuses as they begin to gradually develop romantic feelings for him. He began serialing in the weekly magazine Shonen Jump in February 2017, with its separate chapters collected and published by Shueisha in 19 volumes of the tank from October 2020. The anime adaptation of Studio Silver and Arvo Animation aired from April to June 2019, and the second season aired from October to December of the same year. The manga also spawned two light new spin-offs released in 2019. Viz Media has licensed the manga in North America and serialized it in its digital weekly magazine Shonen Jump and is releasing the manga in print from 2018. Shueisha began publishing the series simultaneously in English on the site and in the Manga Plus app in January 2019. The anime series is licensed by the American company Aniplex. The Nariyuki Yuiga site is a high school student attending Ichinose Academy, who, in order to secure a university scholarship, must teach three geniuses of women of different subjects: Fumino Furuhashi is a genius in literature, but got into mathematics; Riza Ogata is a genius in mathematics, but terrible in literature; and Uruka Takemoto is a genius in the sports field, but terrible in all other subjects. Since girls work with Nariyuki to achieve their academic goals, they also need to deal with their growing feelings for it. As the plot progresses, the other two girls are focused on: Mafuyu Kirisu, their teacher, who, despite her professionalism, is a slob at home and Asumi Kominami, r'nin, who has the look of a middle schooler despite her age. Towards the end of the story, at the Ichinose School Festival, there are rumors that couples who dance together by the fire are destined to become a couple. During this event, Nariyuki meets one of the girls, but her identity is hidden after the first release of the chapter. The story has five separate endings with Nariyuki ending up with one in five girls. While their endings change, the focused girl is the one Nariyuki encountered by the fire. The characters of Nariyuki Yuga (唯我 成幸, Yuiga Nariyuki) are voiced: Ryota Asaka, third-year student and protagonist. In order to provide for his poor family, Nariyuki seeks to obtain a special VIP nomination of his school, a scholarship that waives all future university tuition fees. He gets the nomination, but is given the difficult task of getting three classmates into his universities of choice. His focus on learning was inspired by his late father, who died shortly after he entered junior school, extremely oblivious to the romantic interest of other girls to develop for the duration of the series. Fumino Furuhashi (古橋 文乃), Furuhashi Fumino) Voiced by Haruka Shiraishi, third-year student and genius in art and literature. Fumino is fascinated by stars and wants to get a degree in astronomy, despite his mediocre mathematical skills. Ironically, her father is a professor of mathematics at the university. Fumino and her father have had a strained relationship since the death of her mother ten years ago. However, with the support of Nariyuki, they were finally able to reconcile. She often finds herself in both between Nariyuki and other girls regarding romance tips. Eventually she falls in love with him herself, but tries to suppress her feelings for the sake of her friends. In her graduation, she is the one who falls in the way of the college entrance exams, not Nariyuki. Using a broken leg as a means to get closer to it, she and Nariyuki struggle to confess their mutual feelings to each other, but they end up doing so and becoming a couple. Riza Ogata (緒方 理珠, Ogata Riza) Voiced by Mia Tomita, third-year student and genius in mathematics and science. Riza finds difficulties in understanding the emotions that inspired her decision to pursue a degree in psychology to overcome her own weakness. She is also passionate about board and card games, an interest fueled by gifts she received from her late grandmother. She has never won a single game, blaming her endless losses on her inability to read people. Her family runs a Udon store, which she sometimes helps to work. In their finale, she and Nariyuki help their friend Sawako Sekizh to reconcile with their estranged parents, after which they become a couple. Uruka Takemoto (武元 うるか, Takemoto Uruka) Voiced: Sayumi Suzushiro, third-year student and prodigy. Uruka dreams of becoming an Olympic athlete and aspires to receive a sports scholarship. However, due to her poor academics, she is under the care of Nariyuki to help improve her English skills and become a more comprehensive student. She was in love with Nariyuki from high school, and became friends with him after helping him cope with his father's death. However, she constantly struggles to confess her feelings for him. Later in the series, she receives a scholarship opportunity from an Australian university and becomes a famous swimmer. In her ending reveals that it was she who helped Nariyuki emotionally recover from the loss of his father. She confesses her feelings to Nariyuki before leaving for Australia. A few years later she returns, now a world champion swimmer, and Nariyuki makes her an offer, which she accepts. Mafuyu Kirisu (桐須 真冬, Kirisu Mafuyu) Voiced: Lynn Teacher at the Academy Ichinose, and Riza and the first teacher Fumino. Her views on education are very strong and believes it is a waste of the ability not to go down the path that uses her natural talents. She was later in my heart when you see help their students progress and apologize to them for their selfishness. She was previously an aspiring figure skater who retired from the sport after being inspired to pursue a career in teaching by Nariyuki's father. While Mafuyu comes as cold and silent, she cares deeply about her students and wants them to succeed. Despite her professional demeanor while at work, she is a complete sloppiness at home. Asumi 小美波 あずみ (S.M., Kominami Asumi) Voiced by Madoka Asahina, a graduate of the Ichinose Academy and a student of Ranina. Asumi is often mistaken for a high school student because of her small stature. She is keen to enroll in a national medical university, despite her lacklustre grades in science, in order to support her father's medical clinic. She first meets Nariyuki while cramming to school, and likes to tease him flirtatiously, to his embarrassment. To pay her to cram school lessons and the entrance exam fee to medical school, she works in a maid cafe called High Stage. In her finale, which takes place a few years later, Asumi is on her way to becoming a doctor and makes her stay on a small, remote island with her parents controlling it. Nariyuki, it turns out, has a job on the same island as the teacher, and is her neighbor next door. After a series of events involving Nariyuki and his students, the situation changes for the worse, when Nariyuki seriously injures himself, saving two children during a powerful storm. Requiring surgery, Asumi is forced to operate on him, as her father can not perform a difficult task. The incident strengthens her feelings for Nariyuki and after his full recovery, he proposes to her. Accepting his offer, they decide one day to start a family.
