Thane Oda Wolf-Sister believes that the monks of Ternione could heal King Jorunn. But their complex rituals require special components. A quick step-by-step guide (editorial) Detailed passage, edited, by One Oda Wolf-Sister believes that the monks of Ternione may be able to save King Jorunn from the poison that devastates his blood. However, she says they will need the help of the argonical Dreamwalker, who was present at Darkwater Crossing when the trolls attacked to help. You will also need to bring your own ritual components. Oda believes that the monks will be able to strengthen the vitality of Jorunn with the blood of a vampire. She's not sure if it's going to turn or not, but she knows vampire blood has great restorative properties. If you haven't done the quests in Darkwater Crossing and Wittestadr, now is your chance. Thane Oda Wolf-Sister believes that the monks of Ternione could heal King Jorunn. But their complex rituals require special components. Thane Oda Wolf-Sister: Stormfists were examined and duplicates rounded up. But regardless of the poisonous attacks the king is getting worse by the hour. We can't help him without further information. Hero: The Argonian ambassador said the poison was Deadrick. Thane Oda Wolf-Sister: Now our enemies are sinking so low to team up with Daedra? The poison will kill the king before we can take him to the healers in Windhelm. And no one here can cure poison like this. We must turn to the monks of Ternione for help. Hero: Thorn monks? Thane Oda Wolf-Sister: An old cult. Worshipping totem gods. Call them monks or witches as you will, but they possess the strong magic of healing. Their rituals are complex, and those seeking their help should bring their own ritual components. Hero: I'll help. What do I have to do? Thane Oda Wolf-sister: the poison weakens the king. We need a substance to strengthen its vitality. Thorn monks also require concentration. An object or even a person. Something or someone that possesses a rare power can serve this function. Hero: What can strengthen the life force of the king? Thane Oda Wolf-Sister: Vampire blood gives strength and vitality, even to those on the door of death. Anything that passes through their veins serves to enhance their vitality. The smallest amount should be enough to get the king through the ritual. Hero: Do you want to put vampire blood in the king? It's not going to turn to him? Thane Oda Wolf-Sister: His body is closing. This blood will work as a counteracting poison agent. It won't be enough to turn it around. I don't think. Besides, we don't have many options, do we? Hero: Where did my vampire blood come from? Thane Oda Wolf-Sister: Hot Springs in the North. Rumors suggest that the place is haunted by the undead. Wittestadr, they call it. Let's hope the rumors are true. Of course, you should also get one of them to give you your blood. Hero: What can we use as a focus? Thane Oda Wolf-Sister: Argonians joked about one of their own during the holiday. They called him Dreamwalker. He watches the dreams of the people of Darkwater Crossing. Yes, the same place where trolls are now raging. Hero: How do we know he survived? Thane Oda Wolf-Sister: I am connected to the spirits of this world. In particular, I have a connection with the spirit of the wolf. This connection has existed all my life, even when I was a little child. When the spirits called me, I left home to look for them. Hero: What did you find? Thane Oda I found the monks of Ternione. Cult, some would call But they heard spirits like me. He taught me to listen to the call of the wild. To hone your skills. Being alone with nature. Hero: Why didn't you stay with them? Thane Oda Wolf-Sister: I was young and missed my family. My responsibility to my pedigree finally called me back to Windhelm. I left the people I loved in the middle of the night and never looked back. Now we have to go to them to save our King.Stormy-Eyes: If you ever need help, you only need to ask. I owe you the biggest favors. So are my people. Hero: I need your help. Stormy eyes: Of course. It was promised a favor, and a favor that you will get. What are you asking me? Hero: King Jorunn was poisoned. I need your help. Stormy eyes: Poison? Poison is more dangerous than physical wounds. Some of these vile substances cause dreams to collapse. It doesn't matter. Promise is a promise. Where's the king? Hero: With the monks of Ternione. Stormy eyes: Thorny monks! I've heard a lot of things about them! Many interesting abilities are attributed to these monks. Now I want to visit the Ternions. I'll meet you there. Thane Oda Wolf-Sister: The spirits told me you were close. I spoke to the monks of Ternione. They accepted the king and the prince, but not me. I left the crease. They remember that. But they will help the king. Hero: What now? Thane Oda Wolf-Sister: Dreamwalker is already inside. Let the monks know that you bring ritual components. I must not have one. Fieldgaard's on the run, and we're going to lock up. Now go. Save the king to lead us to victory. Hero: Full quest.
